GOOD CHARLOTTE TO PERFORM LIVE AT KIDS' CHOICE AWARDS 2007

Adopted Aussies and kids' favourites, Good Charlotte are set to perform at the messiest, slimiest, gooiest awards show of them all - Nickelodeon's Australian Kids' Choice Awards 2007 on Wednesday October 10th.

Joel and Benji Madden and the rest of the band will walk Nickelodeon's Orange Carpet in front of thousands of screaming fans before performing live during the show. They will be joined on the carpet by the co-hosts for the evening - teen superstar Zac Efron and Australia's sensational singing sister act, The Veronicas - plus many more of Australia's hottest celebrities.

Now in its fifth year, Nickelodeon's Australian Kids' Choice Awards will be held at the Sydney Entertainment Centre and televised exclusively on Nickelodeon the following night, Thursday October 11th from 4pm with Orange Carpet highlights.

Speaking today of their appearance and nomination, Good Charlotte said, 'How could we ever turn down the opportunity to perform at what has to be the messiest and best awards show ever? We love Nick and can't wait to say hi to our dedicated Aussie fans on the carpet'.

The boys are also nominated in the Fave International Band category alongside Maroon 5, Hinder and Panic! At The Disco.

For all those kids wishing to choose their favourite stars, television shows, songs, and movies they only have until Sunday September 23rd. To vote, go to www.nickelodeon.com.au.

Nickelodeon's Australian Kids' Choice Awards has emerged as one of the biggest events in Australia, boasting a massive popular vote and wide audience participation. It is the only televised kids awards show in Australia that gives kids the power to vote for their favourites and honours their opinions with a show filled with the stars they love.
